Easter Millinery Display

The Last Word in Paris Millinery

And in Millinery as Paris decrees it, it is the last word that counts. More and more it is growing the custom of the highly exclusive milliners to withhold their final mandates till the last possible moment. This season three exclusive creators—each the queen of her own specialty—stubbornly withheld their chief ideas—until now. The styles bring positive assurance to those eager for the last word of approval. Not for many seasons has there been so great a need for the information these displays contain. And the public knows it better each season—that "The Paris" leads in style and capacity in enormous stocks.
